

USF College of Education Global Educator's Scholarship Application

DEADLINE TO APPLY: MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12 BY 5 PM

Overview

To help offset some of the costs associated with studying abroad, the College of Education is awarding Global Educator's Scholarships of up to $1,000 to students who are planning to travel abroad in the Summer 2018 semester. While the Global Educator's Scholarship is not intended to pay for an entire program, it is meant to aid our students in covering some of the costs associated with international study. To be considered for the scholarship, students must fill out the entire application and submit the application by Monday, February 12 at 5 p.m.

Qualifications

To receive the Global Educator's Scholarship, students must meet the following criteria:

- Applicant must be pursuing a degree program in the USF Tampa College of Education. "Pre-education" majors who have not yet been fully admitted to the College are welcome to apply.
- Applicant must begin the online application process for applying to an Education Abroad program. For more information about this, please visit <https://educationabroad.global.usf.edu>.

Applying to an Education Abroad Program

To apply for an Education Abroad program, visit <https://educationabroad.global.usf.edu>. Applicants should check with the individual program website for program-specific deadlines. Deadlines can be as soon as 5-6 months prior to the program date. Generally, summer program applications are accepted on a rolling basis, however, there again students may find that certain programs have specific acceptance deadlines. Students are urged to apply early!

For questions or more information, please contact Jordan Gravlee at jgravlee@usf.edu.

Please submit completed application materials to Jordan Gravlee in EDU 106 (Student Academic Services) or via email at jgravlee@usf.edu.
