YOU CAN:

COMPLAINT PROCESS

The Complaint Process begins only after a FORMAL TITLE IX COMPLAINT is received. This may be a written document, or may be a verbal complaint (followed by a written complaint). In certain instances involving student/employee/campus safety, interim actions may be taken in the absence of a complaint.

APPEAL PROCESS

The Appeal Process follows a Title IX Investigation Decision. An appeal can be made by either the Complaining Person or the Responding Person.

TITLE IX

CAN I TELL SOMEONE?

You can disclose a situation to any "responsible employee," also called a "mandated reporter," who will complete a Title IX Incident Report. You can also disclose directly.

CAN I TALK TO SOMEONE?

Students, faculty, and staff can call the Director of Title IX Compliance or make an appointment for an Information Session. During this appointment, you can obtain information and ask questions.

CAN I FILE A TITLE IX COMPLAINT?

Students, faculty and staff disclosing sexual harassment, including sexual violence, may file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator for the University System. Alternatively, you may file an anonymous complaint.

The Title IX Coordinator and Senior Deputy Coordinator monitor overall implementation of Title IX compliance for the USF System, including coordination of training, education, communications, and the complaint processes for faculty, staff, students and other members of the University System community.

Notice of Nondiscrimination: Pursuant to Title IX, the University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in educational programs or activities that it operates. Such protection extends to both employees and students. Any questions or inquiries concerning Title IX, policies, procedures, or the application of Title IX at the University may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator, Senior Deputy Title IX Coordinator, or to any of the University's Deputy Title IX Coordinators. The most up-to-date information regarding Title IX and other University resources are available on the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Equal Opportunity's website at www.usf.edu/Diversity. When appropriate, the University will take steps to prevent the recurrence of harassment, including sexual violence, and to correct any discriminatory effects of harassment on the complainant and others.
