USF EDUCATION ABROAD

Dear USF Student,

Traveling internationally this year? USF System International Travel Authority Policy #10-507 requires that all students register their student related international travel with the USF World Education Abroad Office or with USF Health. Visit their sites to learn about each registration processes.

Student-related travel is any international activity  tied to an individual's status as an active USF student, regardless of the source of funding for the travel. This may include international travel related to a conference, a student organization, program requirement, elective, research project, service-learning project or study abroad. But, it does not include leisure travel!

Once you are registered, you will be enrolled in USF's mandatory International Health and Evacuation Coverage offered by UnitedHealthcare Global, a leading industry provider. Insurance coverage is provided while abroad. You will automatically benefit from USF World's 24/7 International Assistance Line and International Risk and Security Office services. A nominal one-time charge is assessed for security and safety monitoring.

To learn more, contact USF World Education Abroad Office at 813-974-5474 or email educationabroad@usf.edu

Sincerely,

Dr. Roger Brindley

USF System Vice President, USF World

GLOBAL CITIZENS PROJECT

Calling all USF undergraduate students!

Do you want to study abroad? Do you enjoy community service? Do you want to do undergraduate research? Are you studying a second language? Do you hope to get a job after graduation or go to graduate school? Are you interested in what's happening around the world? Are you a transfer student seeking that "competitive edge?"

If you answered YES! to any of these questions, then you will want to learn about the USF Global Citizens Project and the opportunities available to students.

The Global Citizens Project is a university-wide initiative aimed at preparing you to succeed in today's interconnected world. But what is a global citizen and why should you want to be one? A global citizen can adapt and even thrive in all sorts of situations whether they involve diverse people, places, events, challenges, or opportunities. So being a global citizen means that you are flexible, knowledgeable about the world, collaborative, and with strong leadership skills. Employers and graduate schools seek these qualities in their candidates. The Global Citizens Project will help you develop these qualities.

PARTICIPATE

Being a global citizen can mean many things, but at the heart of it all is being able to engage meaningfully and effectively with diverse people, places, events, challenges, and opportunities.

For the purposes of the Global Citizens Project, USF has identified three primary qualities possessed by a global citizen:

Global Awareness:
EXPLORE your role in the world. Prepare to change your world!

Global Responsibility:
CONNECT with diverse people, places, and issues. Live beyond your borders!

Global Participation:
PARTICIPATE to make a difference locally and globally. Do something that matters!

Going Places is a student-written blog featuring undergraduate and graduate students from the University of South Florida participating in various study abroad programs for either the summer, a semester or a year. If you've ever been curious as to what life is like while studying abroad, check through the many posts for an inside scoop on the programs, tips for traveling, stories of cultures combining and more. Stop by our main office in the Patel Center (first floor) or the Gateway Office in the Marshall Student Center (3301) for more information and to be a part of the #BullsAbroad.

GloBull Ambassadors

As part of the GloBull Ambassador's program, you will have the opportunity to share your experience and knowledge with students who are thinking about studying abroad, or those who have already decided and are in the process of preparing for their study. In addition to quality conversations about overseas destinations and issues, you will get to experience the study abroad industry from the advisor's standpoint, network within the study abroad community, and add a great experience to your résumé!

ATTEND

Semester Study

Fall and spring full semester programs allow students to truly integrate into their host culture and attend institutes, colleges, and universities overseas with other foreign and local students. Your living options and program prices range from program to program as does the field of study available. In most cases, you may take courses from a range of majors. A semester abroad is an enriching experience allowing you to acculturate to your host country. It allows you the opportunity to get to know the people and culture and experience your discipline from a different perspective--one that can not only compliment your own understanding, but one you can bring back with you and use to supplement your USF education.

Summer Programs

USF summer programs range in length from 2 to 10 weeks during the May to August period. Program dates vary, but each are designed to maximize exposure to host cultures while providing an intensive academic study. In most cases, some lectures will be conducted on campus before and after the trip, as well as exams and projects with the faculty director on-site in their host country. In addition to USF faculty led programs, Education Abroad is partnered with many international partner institutes and universities that host our students for focused study. There is also the potential for experiential learning through service, teaching, and internships.

Short-Term Programs

The Education Abroad Office has arranged spring break and intersession short programs designed for students with limited travel time. These programs are highly intensive in nature and rely on a good deal of course work to be completed on campus prior to departure. This work is then brought to life through on-site research and firsthand experiences.
